

Short Sale Disclosure

_____ (Buyer) is making an offer to purchase the property located at 8701 Attingham Dr, Raleigh, NC 27615 (Property). Buyer understands that the Seller is in default of its mortgage and foreclosure proceedings have begun by the mortgagee (Lender). Buyer understands that he is submitting a 'Short Sale' offer on the Property. Buyer understands that his offer must receive written notice by the Seller and the Lender or other authorized Third Party for acceptance.

It is understood that the listed price, advertised by the Listing Agent, is a discounted payoff amount. It is not market value, nor is it necessarily the amount that the lender will accept. There is no guarantee that any offer will be accepted if it is more or less than the listed price. All offers are subject to Third Party approval of the discounted payoff without pursuit of a deficiency judgment. Approval may take between 5 days and 30 days. All offers will remain 'on the table' during this time unless formally withdrawn by the Buyer in writing.

No agreement for the sale of the Property shall be deemed effective unless executed in writing by both Buyer and Seller. Any offer or counter-offer executed by a real estate broker or agent on behalf of Seller shall not be binding on Seller unless and until signed by Seller. Seller is under no obligation of accepting any bid, even if made at full price.

Buyer acknowledges that the Agreement is subject to Third Party acceptance of the 'shorted' payoff, and any subsequent mortgagees' or lien holders' release. In the event that Seller can not transfer clean title, or if any condition cannot be met by Seller, at Seller's option and sole discretion, Seller may notify Buyer that the Agreement is canceled and the earnest money deposit shall be returned to Buyer as Buyer's sole remedy. Seller shall have no further obligation to Buyer in relation to the Agreement, including but not limited to reimbursement for any expenses.

The Property is being sold and purchased in "as is -where is condition without representations and warranties". Buyer has been given the opportunity to inspect the property and all its improvements at Buyer's sole cost and expense. Buyer has accepted the premises based solely on buyer's own inspection. Buyer acknowledges that they are not relying on the Seller's or Agent's representations, statements, guarantees or warranties concerning the condition of the Property or any improvements.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT
INSTRUCTIONS TO PROPERTY OWNERS

1. G.S. 47E requires owners of residential real estate (single-family homes and buildings with up to four dwelling units) to furnish purchasers a property disclosure statement. This form is the only one approved for this purpose. A disclosure statement must be furnished in connection with the sale, exchange, option and sale under a lease with option to purchase (unless the tenant is already occupying or intends to occupy the dwelling). A disclosure statement is not required for some transactions, including the first sale of a dwelling which has never been inhabited and transactions of residential property made pursuant to a lease with option to purchase where the lessee occupies or intends to occupy the dwelling. For a complete list of exemptions, see G.S. 47E-2.
2. You must check one of the boxes for each of the 20 questions on the reverse side of this form.
 - a. If you check "Yes" for any question, you must describe the problem or attach a report from an engineer, contractor, pest control operator or other expert or public agency describing it. If you attach a report, you will not be liable for any inaccurate or incomplete information contained in it so long as you were not grossly negligent in obtaining or transmitting the information.
 - b. If you check "No", you are stating that you have no actual knowledge of any problem. If you check "No" and you know there is a problem, you may be liable for making an intentional misstatement.
 - c. If you check "No Representation", you have no duty to disclose the conditions or characteristics of the property, even if you should have known of them.
 - * If you check "Yes" or "No" and something happens to the property to make your Statement incorrect or inaccurate (for example, the roof begins to leak), you must promptly give the purchaser a corrected Statement or correct the problem.
3. If you are assisted in the sale of your property by a licensed real estate broker, you are still responsible for completing and delivering the Statement to the purchasers; and the broker must disclose any material facts about your property which they know or reasonably should know, regardless of your responses on the Statement.
4. You must give the completed Statement to the purchaser no later than the time the purchaser makes an offer to purchase your property. If you do not, the purchaser can, under certain conditions, cancel any resulting contract (See "Note to Purchasers" below). You should give the purchaser a copy of the Statement containing your signature and keep a copy signed by the purchaser for your records.

Note to Purchasers: If the owner does not give you a Residential Property Disclosure Statement by the time you make your offer to purchase the property, you may under certain conditions cancel any resulting contract and be entitled to a refund of any deposit monies you may have paid. To cancel the contract, you must personally deliver or mail written notice of your decision to cancel to the owner or the owner's agent within three calendar days following your receipt of the Statement, or three calendar days following the date of the contract, whichever occurs first. However, in no event does the Disclosure Act permit you to cancel a contract after settlement of the transaction or (in the case of a sale or exchange) after you have occupied the property, whichever occurs first.

5. In the space below, type or print in ink the address of the property (sufficient to identify it) and your name. Then sign and date.
